

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE WESTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

CHARLES WILLIAM HOOPER,

Plaintiff,

v.

KRISTINE HAMMERMEISTER,

Defendant.

ORDER

11-cv-572-slc

On June 21, 2012, plaintiff Charles W. Hooper failed to call the court to be included in the telephonic preliminary pretrial conference. The court gave Hooper one more chance and re-set the telephonic preliminary pretrial conference for June 28, 2012 at 2:30 p.m., warning Hooper that if he did not telephone in to the court at that time, this lawsuit would be dismissed for failure to prosecute it.

On June 28, 2012, the court waited until 2:40 p.m. for Hooper to call in; he never called. The court convened the telephonic conference with defendant's attorney, who reported that she had received no communication from Hooper beyond his reported change of address.

After the hearing, the court asked the clerk's office to determine whether the June 21 order had been sent to Hooper's new address. One of the deputy clerks who handles pro se cases reported that she not only sent the order to Hooper's new address, she had a telephone call with Hooper that lasted about 30 minutes about his litigation in this court. During this telephone call the deputy clerk reminded Hooper at least three times of the June 28, 2012 telephonic pretrial conference and that it was very important for him to call in as directed.

In light of the above, the only conclusion the court can draw from this is that Hooper has abandoned this lawsuit. Accordingly,

ORDER

IT IS ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED WITH PREJUDICE for plaintiff's failure to prosecute it. The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment closing this case.

Entered this 9th day of July, 2012.
